LATE FROM EUROPE.—The steamship Peruvian, with five days' later news, has arrived.
The Shenandoah put back to Liverpool on the 6th inst., having experienced heavy gales.
O'Leary, the Fenian, was found guilty, and sentenced to twenty years penal servitude.
He made a speech, denying that he was a traitor, but declared that he owed no allegiance to the Queen nor obedience to British laws. Indications have increased that Earl Russell intends to introduce a reform bill. Cotton closed quiet at an advance which was partially lost of day.

At an American banquet in Paris on Thanksgiving day, Minister Bigelow expressed very pacific sentiments, and General Schofield proposed a toast—"Friendship between France and the United States."

The King of Belgium dead.

THE GREAT BREAK-DOWN.—The policy of contraction inaugurated by the Government is beginning to show in the markets. In every part of the country, merchants in view of the fall they know is inevitable are already marking down their goods and curtailing their purchases, knowing that it is unsafe to hold large stocks purchased at the late high prices.
The produce market is also staggering.
Grain and pork have gone down, and there is every indication that they have several steps in the same direction to take yet.

The people have but one course to pursue.
Buy cautiously and carefully, pay for whatever you buy, avoid debt as a pestilence, live within your income, speculate on nothing, but keep everything shipshape and in order. Those who do this will sail through the coming trouble triumphantly—nine-tenths of those who do not will go down.—[Toledo Blade.
